

Nashville Tour 2007

Many hands, hearts, and minds generally contribute to anyone's notable achievements.

February 2007

Don's trip to Nashville was a huge success, due entirely to the enthusiastic, generous and focused actions of our all volunteer team in Nashville.

Key team leaders organized over a week of appearances and interviews with local media, visits to corrections facilities, meetings with political and community leaders and book signings.

Over the course of the week, Don was able to bring his unique message of hope and accountability to hundreds of prisoners and to hundreds more in rehabilitation programs.

His sincerity and personal transparency come through not only in his book, "A Matter of Time", but in his heartfelt messages in person to both large and small groups.

Following is the tour schedule, highlighted in picture by Carla Contreras of "A Celebrity Experience"

2.6.07 Pre-arrival interview with Nashville City Paper, which ran an enthusiastic review of "A Matter of Time" and promoted book signings and public appearances.

2.11.07 Don arrives in Nashville and is featured on Dan Miller's radio program, talking about getting jobs after release from prison.

2.12.07 Don appears on Channel 17 Early Show

That evening Don spoke at the Davidson County Drug Court, a prominent rehabilitation program.

It was a full first day in Nashville, TN. Don was well received by the residents of the Drug Court. About 50% of the audience are former-felons. Don received a standing ovation from the residents of the court, and many stayed after to talk with and shake Don's hand... One day down, nine to go in Tour de Tennessee! We're proud for you Don!

Reconciliation Ministries Inc. is a statewide non-profit organization whose sole mission is dedicated to serving families and children of Tennessee prisoners. Reconciliation recognizes that the families of the incarcerated are forgotten victims of crime. Innocent of any wrong-doing, they often are blamed and ostracized by friends and the community.

2.13.07 Early morning visit to Darryl Waltrup's Garage Christian Fellowship

Evening appearance at Reconciliation Ministries, an organization assisting families and children of Tennessee prisoners

2.14.07 Interview at lunchtime on WRLT's "One on One" radio show

The highlight of the day was speaking to several hundred female prisoners at the Tennessee Prison for Women.

This was followed by a second talk addressing hundreds of male prisoners in the CBCX Men in Work Release program.

Not your average Valentine's Day, but definitely a day that will remain a prominent memory. We started with an interview at WRLT Lightning 100 radio. The afternoon with the FilmNashville.org Chairman; and ended the day with two prison visits; one for women, the other for men - both minimum security.

2.15.07 A midday meeting of the Bellevue Chamber of Commerce was both eventful and rewarding.

Don enjoyed being introduced to many business associates of our well connected volunteer team and was able to get a copy of "A Matter of Time" en route to Ms. Oprah Winfrey.

2.16.07 Due to the great response both from officials and prisoners after Don's appearances at the corrections facilities earlier in the week, we were allowed to bring cameras into the detention facility.

Don was able to spend some recreational time enjoying brunch at Mere Bulles in Brentwood and Jenny Chafin's dinner theater.

Additional pictures follow on the next page...

2.17.07 “A Matter of Time” was promoted at the Rhythm and Books bookstore author’s showcase. Don received a very warm response and was able to speak with several influential people who will be able to assist us in getting the Return to Honor program going in the area.

A key objective of this tour is to bring “A Matter of Time” to the national best seller list. Our goal is not just to sell books, but to duplicate the powerful influence of Don’s story far beyond what he can physically impact in personal appearances.

2.18.07 Don attended church with Karen Barron Smith and had lunch with several team members.

A lively radio interview with Enoch Fuzz on WVOL 1430 am capped off another great day.

2.19.07 Don was featured briefly on the "Talk of the Town" TV show. They were so engaged that they arranged to film a follow up 30 minute feature interview on the 21st

2.20.07 The busiest day yet...

An early breakfast at the Exchange Club was followed by a meeting with several key business leaders.

Dan Miller's Radio show taped additional material for an upcoming double broadcast.

Don attended the IBI luncheon at the Brentwood Grill, to network and thank key volunteer team members and share the business success side of this story.

Early afternoon found Don at the Davidson County Metro jail addressing hundreds more inmates. This door was opened mid-tour after corrections officials were so impressed with his story and its impact on their groups.

A brief personal meeting with Representative Jim Cooper was held in the afternoon.

Early evening Don addressed the "Inside Out Work Release Program" and then met with the volunteer team back at Bob Allen's Rhythm and Books to celebrate the conclusion of a power-packed week.

Many thanks to our volunteer team – they started working in December and kept making introductions and requests until we had a terrific initial schedule, which was supplemented by added events as the tour went on.
